

PRESENTATIONS TO LEARNED SOCIETIES

- 1) Diagnosis of Giant-cell arteritis suspects: identifying the non-sufferers using Bayesian predictive modeling
Oxford Ophthalmology Congress: June 2018:
- 2) CNV interventions: risk-benefit communication
The Royal College of Ophthalmologists Annual Congress Liverpool June 2018
- 3) Understanding Risk-v-Benefit
Risk in Medicine
Wolfson Centre for Personalised Medicine October 2017.
- 4) Van Eyck's The Virgin with the Canon: Visual Disability and Societal Attitudes as Depicted in the Northern Renaissance.
Gresham College October 2016
- 5) Clinical Decision Support System for Chronic Ocular Discomfort
Annual Meeting of the UKISCRS October 2015
- 6) Absolute risk reduction and Natural frequencies in neo-vascular AMD.
Oxford Ophthalmology Congress June 2015:
- 7) Decoding landmark studies in Ocular Hypertension and Glaucoma
North of England Ophthalmological Society 2015
- 8) Web-based diagnosis
The Royal College of Ophthalmologists Clinical Leads Forum November 2014
- 9) Prospects for online disease management
Westminster Health Forum Seminar October 2012
- 10) Sequential treatment of macular oedema from retinal vascular occlusions and uveitis with anti-VEGF agents and Ozurdex
7th Pan-Hellenic Vitreo-Retinal Conference Athens, May 2012
- 11) Measuring the service impact of Ranibizumab treatment for macular degeneration
The Royal College of Ophthalmologists Annual Congress Liverpool January 2012
- 12) Two-year follow-up of routine usage of 5-fluor-uracil to "enhance" trabeculectomy
European Glaucoma Society Congress Madrid Sept 2010
- 13) Cataract risk evaluation
HRA Medico-Legal Conference –Bristol December 2010
- 14) Relation of Optical Coherence Tomography Features of Choroidal Neovascularization with Fluorescein Angiographic Appearance.

ARVO, April 2009

15) Giant Cell Arteritis: Are we over treating with corticosteroids?

The Royal College of Ophthalmologists Annual Congress Liverpool June 2008